Turn right at the junction and onto the hiking trail - turn left and head uphill after approx. 400 m – and follow the steeply climbing trail through the forest (Way of the Cross) until it enters the road. Head right when you reach the road – pass the Bonholz farmstead – and continue following the trail into the forest. Turn left when you reach the garage at the end of the forest. Along the road for approx. 50 m and then head right and downhill. At the road junction in the direction of Distelberg, keep right and follow the track through the forest.
