

Wildgerlostal - Finkau Winterhike

From the Gerlospass valley station you walk along the road to the Finkau Inn.
Once there, you can fortify yourself with local specialties.
Return on the same route

|                                 |                                                                           |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Walking time             | 02:00 h                                                                   |
| Time Uphill              | 01:00 h                                                                   |
| Time downhill            | 01:00 h                                                                   |
| Route Length             | 9.7 km                                                                    |
| altitude meters uphill   | 64 hm                                                                     |
| altitude meters downhill | 80 hm                                                                     |
| highest point            | 1471 m                                                                    |
| Public transport         | With the bus 4094 to Königsleiten.Exit point: Gerlosplatte Talstation |
| Parking                  | Parking lot at the Gerlosplatte valley station                            |
| Route Start              | Gerlosplatte valley station (1.470m)                                      |
| Route End                | Gerlosplatte valley station (1.470m)                                      |

Altitude Profile

Kartenausschnitt